Spine Correction Center of the Rockies Now Offering More Advanced Treatment Options With On-site Nurse Practitioner

Fort Collins, CO, 10/27/2010 - Spine Correction Center of the Rockies is now offering advanced treatment options for patients on-site through a new Nurse Practitioner. The new services include botanical injections, advanced diagnostics, and durable medical equipment prescriptions.

The new addition was made to give patients another way to reduce inflammation, reduce pain, heal more quickly.

In a recent letter to customers, Dr. Farrell and Dr. Cardwell said: "We are thrilled to announce Jean Hershey Fitch has joined our team as a nurse practitioner. Jean will be able to offer botanical injections and advanced diagnostic tools, and prescribe durable medical equipment, which will help Spine Correction Center achieve even better results."

Speaking to the reason why they added this service now, the doctors said, "Spine Correction Center's vision has always been to be Colorado's Premier physical medicine Clinic specializing in non-invasive, non-surgical treatment of musculoskeletal disorders, with the goal of achieving results where others have failed."
